WHY "Children Know Peace", the theme for the 2011 International Peace Poster contest, sponsored by the Burbank Noon Lions, is part of the first level of competition.

The Peace Poster contest was established by Lions Clubs International to promote the awareness of world peace internationally, among youth. Burbank government officials, students, teachers, Lions and parents will gather for the awards presentation to honor the winners from three Burbank Middle schools and the Boys and Girls Club taking part in this year's contest. This is the 16th year the Burbank Noon Lions club has sponsored the project in Burbank. Winners of this competition have the opportunity to proceed to the next level. After all judging around the world, there will be 23 Merit winners (receiving $500) and one top winner, receiving $2,500 and a trip to the United Nations in New York City. All Burbank student entries will be on display in the Burbank Central Library until January.

Boys & Girls Club - Margo Akopov
Jordan Middle School – Ryan O'Neill
Luther Burbank Middle School - Jasmine Garcia
Muir Middle School - Sebastian Schug
